Offsite Co-Op Private Event Launches in Chicago to Spark Collaboration and Innovation in Construction

Chicago, IL – June 20, 2025 – A bold new chapter in construction innovation begins this fall with the launch of the Offsite Co-Op, a three-day private event happening October 28–30 in Chicago, bringing together the brightest minds in Offsite Construction and High-Performance Building (HPB).

Designed to go beyond traditional expos, Offsite Co-Op Event presented by Offsite Dirt Network offers a dynamic, collaborative space where industry leaders, disruptors, and solution-seekers can connect in a meaningful way. With a mix of hands-on workshops, powerful networking, and an exclusive tour of a modular steel frame container factory, the event is tailored to drive real business conversations and spark partnerships that move the industry forward.

“This isn’t just another event—it’s a chance to collaborate with people you actually want to work with,” said Audree Grubescic, founder of Offsite Dirt Network and event organizer. “We’re creating a space where experts and innovators can share insights, build relationships, and influence the future of construction together.”

Attendees will also have the opportunity to be recognized as Inner Circle Expert Contributors to OffsiteDIRTNetwork.com, positioning themselves as national Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) in their field and gaining valuable visibility across the industry.

Whether you're a seasoned executive or an emerging voice in offsite and sustainable building, Offsite Co-Op is your opportunity to connect, collaborate, and lead the conversation on what’s next for the built environment.
